NO ARCANE ABERRATION, CONSPIRACY IS FOREVER

Resonating to Chris Sharrett writing in the May 1995 issue of The Fourth Decade, we quote his last paragraph.

> I would suggest to researchers who know, rather than believe, that the JFK assassination was a state crime, to be wary of the incessant fetishizing of the stale crumbs of Dealey Plaza. I would ask that researchers use their knowledge to help educate our people on the illegitimacy of the state under current economic relations. The well-worn term "conspiracy" may not serve us very adequately, since it suggests an arcane aberration rather than the normal working of our ruling class as they decide how best to divide the spoils and police our domain. The refusal to face this fact , the refusal to see the murder as, in Peter Dale Scott's term, an "internal adjustment," is perhaps key to why many prefer to continue in their obsessions rather than focus on the assassination's relationship to continuing issues of social and economic justice for our society.

The Conspiracy Museum's credo (GKG VI/95) does not dip into socio-economics. It does however, point to THE Conspiracy's continuing control of the Oval Office where the decisions are made on the "issues of social and economic justice for our society."

Campaign 96 is the next chance to smash the coup d'etat syndrome that for fifty years has favored War over Peace in this neighborhood we all call Earth.

Beware the candidate wearing the Single-Bullet Theory hat.

OSWALD and the CIA by John Newman (Carroll & Graf NY 95)

Carefully crafted, erudite, well-written, not always easily-read, academic and thouroughly researched, this mountian of documents is more than able to defend itself against attacks from any quarter. Only the lunatic fringe would attempt to cross computers with this mission accomplished.

That said, GKG steps back two paces, spots a couple of chinks in the armor and critiques the mission, not the accomplishment.

> ... the purpose of this book is to carry out an examination of the internal records on Oswald .... our story has a strange beginning: defection. .... (p 421)

Strangling every writer's normal aversion to starting off on the wrong foot with a stranger, the author buries his curiosity under his mountain of documents.

> ... of the many riddles we have attempted to solve in the book, the Dealey Plaza puzzle is not among them...(p 429)

Hooked with a strange-defection beginning, the author tries to dismiss the equally strange-puzzle ending out of hand. Refusing to fade away into the mists, it ends up buried alongside Curiosity under the mountain of documents.

Standing back one more pace, the title looms large as a flaw. Wholly within the fairy tale that Oswald killed the President, Oswald and the CIA does nothing to denounce that Executive Branch lie. The author's avoidance of responsibility suddenly retrieved our friend Sharrett's "incessant fetishizing." Sculling for the Univ of Hartford, G M Evica demonstrates le style academe with lengths of open water over the Univ of MD entry. Row Newman, row.

OSWALD and the CIA

The author's Oswald is not Marguerite's third son Lee Harvey. One year before the strange defection, a CIA spy-ops out of Atsugi, Japan substituted AJH, Alek James Hidell for LHO, Lee Harvey Oswald. With Oswald's name and Marine radar tech rate, AJH lives his first nine months alias O in El Toro AFB California. Trained for his Soviet Union spy mission, the CIA inserted him as KGB bait in October 1959. Farmed out to Minsk, he waited, as did the KGB, for the CIA to bring him in from the cold.

This is nothing new. The book, alias OSWALD has been around since 1985. Its mountain of documents, dug out of the 26-volume swamp, is soggy and graphic, two strikes against its being accepted as "evidence". It is however, an accurate reflection of the truth.

It does give any writer the golden opportunity for a far stranger beginning than the one Newman finessed.

Imagine Allen Dulles' excitemnt 22 Nov 63 as he anticipates covering-up the President's murder with a patsy. Poised atop this piece of cake is the frosting: covering-up the ID of the murder's cover-up patsy. Then mothering htis Oswald-lone-nut theory into America's Lone Assassin Myth.

Small wonder Dulles lectured the Warren Commission on America's being accustomed to lone assassins. His examples, Lawrence, Guiteau, Czolgosz and Schrank were all single-mineded assassins with motives. The Lone Assassin Patsy was the invention of the ex-DCI.

What happened to LHO is the real story of Oswald and the CIA.

"SHOOTDOWN" TO EXPLO 007

Anti-Communism is the disease tying the Dallas coup d'etat to the "Korean airliner incident" twenty years later. THE Conspiracy that killed JFK is marinated in anti-Communism, the same stuff that hatches the fairy tale about a Russian fighter-pilot shooting a civilian airliner down into the Sea of Japan.

Jim Garrison's Heritage of Stone (G P Putnams' Sons, NY, 1970) explains how easily the world can be duped.

> ... the warfare state operates at two different levels. This is necessary because the interests of the power elite frequently are unrelated to the interests of the people at large. There is what might be called the practical level which is usually hidden from the view of the populace, and the loveable level, arranged for all to see .... (p 206)

In the summer of 1983 the warfare state is more than a bit concerned over the European-American Peace Movement protesting deployment of its Pershing missiles in England and on the Continent. Congressional funding of the MX missile is in jeapordy. The Soviets, preparing to withdraw from Afghanistan 1 September, are talkign disarmament and inviting the US to summitry. Re-election of the Great Communicator is but 15 months away.

To kill these doves of Peace and revenge the CIA station loss in the April bombing of the Beirut embassy, the warfare state's military-intelligence complex concocts an operation designed to ravage Communism's global image beyond repair.

The scheme has a civilian airliner carrying the new John Birch Society president, Congressman Larry McDonald on his anti-Communist junket to Seoul, appear east of Sakhalin Island, lost and off-course.

Requesting permission for a safe landing on Sakhalin, the scheme has the unarmed airliner apparently shot at in the process. The result is an international brouhaha with egg-on-the-face USSR playing the part of the goat.

Of all THE Conspiracy's murders, KA 007's "shootdown" is by far the best covered-up.

Figure 1, page 6, details KA 007's becoming and surrendering its role as the USSR's radar-tracked "intruder aeroplane". Just as KA 007 flies in from over the Sea of Okhotsk for its safe-on - Sakhalin landing, an SP, Stealth Plane, 80 miles west, lures a scrambling fighter-pilot into "Shootdown KA 007" over the Sea of Japan.

As SP flies away home unharmed, EXPLO 007 becomes the totally unexpected finale. Its success is skyrocketed one-thousand fold.

"SHOOTDOWN" To BOOMERANG

Sacrificing secret Stealth gear, installed on KA 007 for this junket prevents its being captured by the enemy. But a part of the price for a couple of months of Evil-Empire bashing, final figures must include the plane and the sacrifice of 269 innocent lives.

This is the loveable level scenario that prevails today. Finding a compass heading that produces a straight-line course from take-off in Anchorage to shootdown in the Sea of Japan, authors ignore the turn to become the "intruder aeroplane" and the double turn before and over Sakhalin Island.

Their fairy tales fit comfortably into the loveable-level scenario produced by the Moles of the Potomac for the Secretary of State's accusation of USSR murderer. When NINE days later, the first debris from the crash washes ashore TWO HUNDRED MILES southeast of the crashsite, it is drowned in the worldwide tidal wave of hatred inundating Communism and the Soviet Union.

Unable to counter the charge, the USSR takes its loss of cae in stoic silence, knowing it has been trapped into acquiescence.

The report's CVR, Cockpit Voice Recorder tape shows KA 007 exploding upward 3,259 feet in 50 secs.

These two are incompatible for one plane, KA 007. SP is real.

Penelope's psychic help locates KA 007east of the island. When the Soviets find the remains they do not report it. The CIA/NSA then knows the KGB knows who did what to KA 007, when and why.

The anti-Communist JBS junket boomerangs. The USSR decides to withdraw from empire. Using its Okhotsk card it diplomatically blackmails the Warfare State into signing on for disarmament at Reykjavk. PWM bellies-up for lack of an enemy and WAR, as a way of LIFE dies in this neighborhood we all call Earth.
.... and the Wall comes a-tumbling down ....
Losing the Battle of Sakhalin, the USSR wins the WAR for PEACE.
